HAYAL POZANTI: My Armory Show Top 10

Written by Elena Soboleva, February 28, 2014

Jessica Silverman Gallery

(Pier 94 – Contemporary, Booth 761)

The booth is part of the inaugural edition of Armory Presents, a curatorially tight section of the fair dedicated to newly-established dealers and younger artists. The San Francisco gallery, and preeminent outpost of emerging talent on the West Coast, will present Hayal Pozanti's new series of paintings. With names like Technocream and Archival Alchemy, the irresistible canvases depict rounded geometric forms derived from subconscious doodles, GIFs and digital rendering which reconcile the digital world with canons of modern art.
